

Harvish
JEWELS
Inclusive Fineness

Harshad Sen's high-jewelry gem-set at Harvish Jewels is a true masterpiece! The AAA grade Zambian pear-shaped emeralds in the 3-line necklace exude elegance and sophistication. This piece not only shines with beauty but also serves as a valuable investment due to the rarity and quality of Zambian Emeralds. It's an excellent compact asset class that combines beauty and value perfectly.

ABOUT

Harvish Jewels is a premium jewellery studio that aspires to create unique, elegant jewellery designs with a touch of tradition. More than just being a premium brand, Harvish Jewels is a destination in itself, acknowledged for its exemplary artistic designs, wide collection of jewellery, impeccable service and unconventional approach. This is what sets apart, Harvish Jewels from any of its counterparts giving it a leading edge and preference from its customers.

HISTORY AND HERITAGE

For the love of the City, Art & Tradition attached to it, Vaishali & Harshad Soni have been constantly striving for the last 30 years to revive and preserve this art by providing the traditional essence in all their designs to build up a legacy which is bound to give a serious artistic approach. The couple themselves is visionary and pioneer in the field of Gold, Diamonds, Gems and Colour Stones. They also hold a rich lineage of being associated with the one of the most eminent jeweller family, known to be the pioneer jewellers in the princely state of Baroda (now Vadodara). They are known to be constantly innovative in their approach with a penchant for new designs, along with recreating forgotten classical designs with modern essence. Being focused and committed jeweller and having taken over the mantle from their ancestors to being a remarkable craftsman in their own right along with the mandated to preserve the fading tradition & culture. Some of the attributes to them are precision in workmanship, genuineness, honesty and an ardent lover and promoter of art.
